If you are interested in knowing more about our Home groups, please call Jim Payne at 303-434-4229 or email at jimmy.payne@q.com. For questions specific to a particular small group, please contact the leader for that group. Before attending a specific group for the first time, it is recommended to call and verify time and location. The groups are dynamic and occasionally host or participate in special events, which will alter the schedule.
